

Name _____
Period _____
Date _____

The Rise of Conservatism: Crash Course US History #41

- 1) Show how there was a shift from the liberal politics of the New Deal to more conservative politics during the 1960s and 1970s.

- 2) Explain the shift in the South from liberalism to conservatism during the Election of 1964 even though the presidency was won by Democrat Lyndon B. Johnson (LBJ).

- 3) How did Richard Nixon win the Presidential Election of 1968?

- 4) What precedent did Roe v. Wade (1974) establish in the United States?

- 5) Explain why Title XI was a victory for working women.

6) Why did anti-ERA promoters, such as Phyllis Schlafly, claim that free enterprise was the greatest liberator of women?

7) During the Election of 1972, why was the break-in of Democrat Barry Goldwater's campaign offices at the Watergate hotel so detrimental to President Nixon?

8) Why did President Nixon resign from office even though he may not have been part of the Watergate scandal?

9) Give concrete examples of the many things that conservatives found unsettling with liberalism in the 1970s and why many saw it as a government out of control.
